Shocking Brutality at the Reno Stock Yards Exposed

Mired in the soft mud of the cattle corral at the east end of town, an injured cow lay for three days, unattended by any one. The keeper of the yards explained yesterday who a reporter visited the scene, that if the animal was killed the carcass would have to be removed at the expense of the yards.

Kind women were told of the affair, and they carried water to the cow, quenching her thirst until a government meat inspector ended the animal's misery.

The negligence of the owners of the cattle that were removed Saturday, all but one, will be investigated toay by the council. Health Officer Robinson was told that thirty hogs died in the corral luring the recent storm, and he believes the conditions should be remedied.

People living in the neighborhood of the stock yards demand that a change in the conduct of the place be made. They say that their health should be preserved, and that the filthy corrals will only result in sickness. That is why so many of the residents of the east end complained yesterday about the dying cow, and the uninterested attendant.

The owners offered no excuse, whatever, for the cow being allowed to remain in that condition, excepting that if killed, the yards would be at the expense of removing the carcass. If, on the other hand, the usual custom was followed, a government meat inspector would come around sometime during the day, and have

MURDERER SAVES HIS NECK BY JUROR'S IGNORANCE

NEW ORLEANS, April 1.—Inability on the part of a jury to read and write the English language has resulted in quashing the indictment against Congress-man-elect George K. Favot, charged with the murder of Dr. Aldrich in Baton Rouge last autumn.

In the district court a demurrer to the indictment was sustained on the ground that one member of the jury, an Italian could neither read nor write English. The state appealed to the supreme court which affirmed the decission of the lower court.

JAIL DELIVERY FEARED--MEN TAKEN TO PRISON

ACCUSED MURDERERS ARE IN PENITENTIARY

Hawthorne the Suspected Goal of Persons Wanting to Release Incarcerated Men

Fearing a general jail delivery at Hawthorne, where the accused members of the Industrial Workers of the World are held for the murder of John Silva, Sheriff Ingalls yesterday took three men to Carson City, and they are now closely guarded in the cells of the state penitentiary. They passed through Reno on the way.

Smith and Preston, who are charged with the murder of the Goldfield restaurant keeper, and Hines, who killed Count Podhorsky, are the prisoners who caused the precautions.

Armed and mounted cowboys still stand watch over the Esmeralda county jail. The suspicion that a raid would be made on the prison caused Ingalls to rush to Carson City with the men. University of Nevada students returning here last night from the funeral of Stoddard Southworth brought the report to this city.

When the university students were visiting the penitentiary, the shackles used by Deputy Sheriff Jones to hold the prisoners were placed on one of the students for a joke. The shackles snapped, and the student had to be hauled to town, where the deputy sheriff removed the bonds.

MAN WHO SAW JAPAN OPENED TO WORLD IS DEAD

NORFOLK, Va., April 1.—Charles S. Graham, aged eighty-six, who was a purser clerk on one of Commodore Perry's ships during the latter's expedition to Japan more than a half century ago, and which resulted in the opening of the ports of the Mikado's empire to foreign commerce, died Sunday at his home in Portsmouth, Va., where he was a merchant.

NEGRO BAND IS UP IN ARMS

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 2.—At one o'clock this morning, a telephone message received here from Durant, I. T. says that an appeal had reached there for all the deputy marshals at that point to go at once to Cales, five miles away on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad to aid the white people who were threatened with attacks by a band of negroes, who have been to Colbert and armed themselves for avowed purpose of avenging the lynching of Jim Williams there last night.

Williams was accused of attacking Tillie Misner, a young white woman.

The white people at Cale say that they have a force of seventy-five men ready to fight but are without ammunition. The negroes are said to be well armed and to number three hundred.

Help will be sent at once. The marshals are now forming a posse to start for Cales.

HIGH WAVES ROLL IN STREETS OF HAVANA

HAVANA, April 1.—A portion of this city along the water front is inundated by the sea. High waves are dashing over the sea-wall outside the harbor and many streets are flooded.

The famous Prado is a sheet of water almost as far as the central part. The police are rescuing people from buildings of one story in boats. It is feared that some of the houses under water will collapse.

NEW EXCHANGE AT ELY IS INAUGURATED WITH SUCCESS

ELY, Nev., April 1.—After weeks of preparation the Ely Mining and Stock Exchange opened its doors this afternoon. The pit was fairly well crowded with members of the exchange and considerable business was transacted. Only local stocks were traded in but negotiations are on foot to post Goldfield stocks in this exchange.

William H. Binford, of Ogden, who has considerable holdings in and around Ely, is secretary and treasurer of the local exchange.

Goldfield's Business Men Issue Official Statement

GOLDFIELD, Nev., April 1.—The situation in Goldfield is unchanged. Everything is quiet and business generally is being conducted as if no trouble existed at the mines. The law and order forces have the situation well in hand and no further trouble is expected.

The executive committee of the business men and mine owners association today issued this statement:

"To the public: All statements, reports or assertions that the Businessmen's and Mine Owners' Association of Goldfield has been formed to combat or oppose organized labor or to overthrow the Western Federation of Miners are unqualifiedly false. Its purpose, a sdeclared at the outset, is to rid the community of the long continued and intolerable agitations of the un-American organization calling itself the Industrial Workers of the World, that we may permanently settle and adjust the labor and business conditions of this great mining camp, with due regard to the interests of all. To this end, we have invited and will welcome the co-operation of all genuine labor unions toward the establishment of industrial peace which is indispensable to continued law, order and prosperity.

"We reiterate our original announcement that 'No declaration of war has been issued or felt by this association against the Western Federation of Miners.'

"There is no intention of disturbing present conditions as to hours and wages and when the object above stated has been accomplished the association believes that an agreement can be signed between the mine owners and the miners guaranteeing the present hours and wages for any number of years that may be mutually agreed upon."

Ruef Applies to Supreme Court Now to Be Relieved

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—On the eve of his trial on the charge of extorting $28,000 from French restaurant keepers of this city, which is to be begun tomorrow morning, before Judge Dunne in the superior court, Abraham Ruef today asked the supreme court of California to free him from the custody of Elisor Biggy and order him into the charge of the sheriff, whom Judge Dunne disqualified on the ground of personal interest.

Ruef by his attorneys, Messrs Shortridge, Ach, Fairall and Murphy filed in the higher court an application for a writ of habeas corpus so extensive in allegations, arguments and citations of authorities that it occupies twenty-one typewritten pages and embraces sixty-two subdivisions.

Ruef sets up that his imprisonment, detention and curtailment of liberty by Elisor Biggy in the house number 2849 Fillmore street are illegal, that his case was in court for four months prior to March 4 and that on that date, being indisposed, he concluded to visit the Trocadero a suburban resort, and there recuperate, believing, on the advice of his counsel, that his presence in court was not required owing to an appeal taken by him to the supreme court of the United States by means of error granted by Superior Judge Hebbard; that he was there arrested without legal right, that he has applied to Judge Dunne for admittance to bail and been refused; that he is forty-two years old,

STRIKE NOT LIKELY NOW TO HAPPEN

Reassuring News Comes from Chicago and Everything Indicate an Amicable Compromise

CHICAGO, April 1.—The railway employees in the train service have reduced their demands to a nine hour work day and the government officials who came to Chicago last week to bring about a peacable adjustment of the threatened strike are working hard to overcome that obstacle.

Commissioners Knapp and Neill held an almost continuous session today with the general managers and the representatives of the trainmen and conductors.

The men today signified their willingness to accept the wage increase offered by the railroads if the managers would grant the demand for the nine hours work-day. The labor delegates declared that the wage increase asked for was a minor consideration, but that they could not face their constituents without securing improvements in the working conditions.

It was learned tonight that the nine hour demand of the firemen was what was preventing a settlement of that end of the labor difficulties the western railroads are experiencing.

While acting separately, entirely from the conductors and trainmen, the firemen are standing out for the same demands, and it is said, in the event of a strike being ordered, they too, would walk out.

THE THAW CASE

NEW YORK, April 1.—It is probable that the Thaw lunacy commission will report Tuesday morning. The case was adjourned last week until this morning and when the jury was called before the court today Justice Fitgerald adjourned the trial again until Thursday morning.

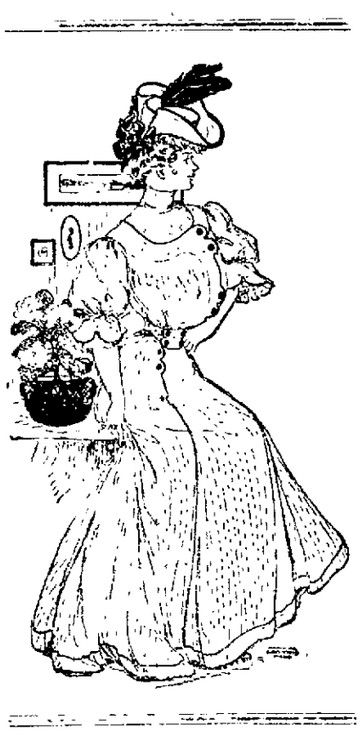

The lunacy commission will meet tomorrow and it is expected that they will be ready to report Thursday.

JOHN WHITSON OF COMMERCIAL LEAGUE ON A TRIP

GOES ON A VISIT EAST AND TO EUROPEAN LANDS

Chairman of Publicity Commission Who Did So Much To Pass the Railroad Bill Will Take a Four Months' Rest Now

John Whitson, chairman of the publicity committee of the Nevada Commercial League, departed on the Overland limited early this morning for New York and Europe. He will spend about four months on a tour for the benefit of his health and at the end of that time he will return to this state to begin again the advertising labors left unfinished at the time of the appointment of Sam Davis of Carson to the head of the governmental bureau.

John Whitson created much of the sentiment that resulted in the passage of the railroad bill. His work on railroad rate at the central time made such a man as Senator Easton return to the legislature after a short trip home and say "For God's sake, isn't there something that I can do to satisfy the people who voted for me?"

At that time the chairman of the publicity committee spent days and nights planning a campaign. He is rewarded by having the respect and well wishes of the people of the state.

SHOCKING BRUTALITY

the animal killed under his inspection, after which she would be available for fertilizer, and the producer of that commodity would remove the carcass at his own expense.

The fact that the animal was suffering during the delay hours of the day and night which had elapsed had no weight in the mind of the thrifty stockman.

During the forenoon Chief of Police Le Roy appealed to, and stated that he had no authority to act in the matter, and that the only relief he could suggest for the animal was to swear out a warrant for the arrest of the stockyards owner, charging him with maintaining a public nuisance.

RUEF HAS APPLIED TO SUPREME COURT FOR HELP

has lived in San Francisco all his life, has been engaged in the practice of the law for twenty years and has large business interests at stake; that he is constantly and minutely watched by eight private guards and the court elisor all of them bearing firearms, all of them employed by Rudolph Spreckel, Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns, and all of them paid out of a private fund of $100,000 raised and guaranteed by Spreckels; that his indictment by the grand jury was instigated and caused by Spreckels, Heney and Burns, that Spreckels, Heney and Burns, that Spreckels, Heney and Judge Dunne are his political enemies, that so strict is the espionage maintained over his guards that it is impossible for him to have counsel with his attorneys except by whispering softly, that he has been by Judge Dunne and refused more liberty, that persons who are to be witnesses in his defense are not permitted to visit and confer with him in the preparation of his defense; that he is compelled to sleep in a bedchamber occupied by his guards and warm lights are kept burning all night, that all this is being done for the express purpose of bedeviling and dampening him of and his counsel in the preparation of his defense; that he is not held by lawful authority; that he is held without bail on the ground that his trial has begun, under section 1129 of the penal code which is violative of the fifth and eighth amendments to the amendment of the constitution of the United States referring to cruel and unusual punishment, that he is being cruelly and unusually punished.

He asks to be discharged from the custody of the elisor on reasonable bail and to be then ordered into the custody of the sheriff and that pending the hearing of this petition an order of the court be made directing the elisor to permit no one person at a time to visit and talk to him within reasonable hours and to permit any person to visit him upon written order of his attorneys and to permit him to consult freely and openly with his attorneys outside of the hearing of Elisor Biggy.

The supreme court took no action upon the application today, not even issuing an alternative writ.

Among the witnesses examined by the grand jury today were Hartley F. Peart, an attorney associated with George F. Hatton, general counsel for the Home Telephone Company of Oakland; Miss Lucile Cochran, stenographer to George F. Hatton, Stuart Gayness, a local newspaper man, and Mr. Stice, assistant general manager of the Pacific States Telephone Company. Miss Cochran was interrogated and testified as to letter to the Home Telephone Company of San Francisco which had been dictated to her by Hatton.

"I couldn't tell the jury much," said Miss Cochran after she had been excused.

THE COMMERCIAL LEAGUE ASKS TAGGART TO RESIGN

SECRETARY OBJECTS BUT COMMITTEE IS TO ACT

Final Step Will Be Taken Next Monday When the Regular Meeting Is to Be Held—This Confirms Rumors in Circulation for Some Time

D. S. Taggart was asked yesterday to resign from the secretaryship of the Nevada Commercial League. The resignation was demanded by the executive committee, consisting of J. E. Menardi, Max Semple and A. J. Frochlich.

The ultimatum from the committee was final, notwithstanding Taggart's plea to hold in place. The secretary will be forced to hand in the resignation Monday, when the league holds regular session.

Taggart has received a salary of $250 a month since the league was formed. His expenses were paid throughout the state when he went to solicit funds.

For several months the work of the league has been limited to legislative matters. The executive committee believes that the secretary has not performed his work well, and its action only confirms the rumor heard for several weeks that the resignation would be asked for.

SAN FRANCISCO AND OAKLAND LAUNDRY STRIKE

Demand for an Eight-Hour Day and Increased Pay Is Refused by the Employers so Employes Leave the Washing on the Line

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Twelve hundred laundry workers today voted to go on a strike when their employers refused to grant them an eight hour day and an increase of wages and as the result nine laundries were closed down.

Only three laundries agreed to the terms proposed by the union.

The refusal on the part of the eight steam laundries of Alameda county to grant an increase of from $2 to $2.50 a week precipitated a strike of the operatives there today. Six hundred men and women are out and no attempt is being made by the laundry companies to operate their plants.

The Oakland laundrymen's union is preparing to start a steam laundry of its own.

BAND-WAGONS AND AUTOS IN THE CHICAGO CAMPAIGN

Roosevelt Butts in for Busse but Democrats Declare That the President's Letter Is a Fake

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Republican leaders in the municipal campaign ending today, express themselves as delighted with the letter printed in the Tribune today in which the statement is made "by authority" that President Roosevelt is in favor of the election of Frederick A. Busse, the Republican candidate for mayor. The Democratic leaders assert that the letter, coming as it does, from a newspaper which is strongly in favor of the election of Busse is discredited in advance and that even though it had come from the president himself, it is too late to stop the progress of the vote which has set in strongly for Dunne. Chairman O'Connell, the Democratic manager, said today that the election of Dunne is absolutely certain and that nothing can now prevent it.

The campaign today took on a more lively aspect than ever. Band wagons were trotting throughout the city advertising political meetings scheduled for all sections of the city. No new epithets were applied for the reason that the supply had been exhausted but the old ones were as usual hurled back and forth. Chicago has never known a political campaign in which invective and vituperation have played such prominent parts.

Campaign managers on both sides continue predicting the election of their mayoralty candidates by at least 30,000. Straw votes taken by the newspapers favorable to Busse give him a plurality of 30,000 to 75,000. The papers supporting Dunne have taken no straw vote.

Mayor Dunne spent the greater part of today in an automobile going to various meetings. He made many speeches and was at all places received enthusiastically. Mr. Busse, who has been confined to his apartments during the campaign because of injuries received recently in an accident on the Pennsylvania road, left his room today for the first time and received the prominent men of his party in his home.

RENO THEATRE

The Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company will build a first-class theatre in Reno, which will be in a circuit with the Goldfield Hippodrome and Tonopah Hippprodrome theatres.

The building will be erected at a cost of $80,000, constructed of cement stone blocks, three stories high, with a frontage of seventy-four feet and a depth of one hundred and twelve feet.

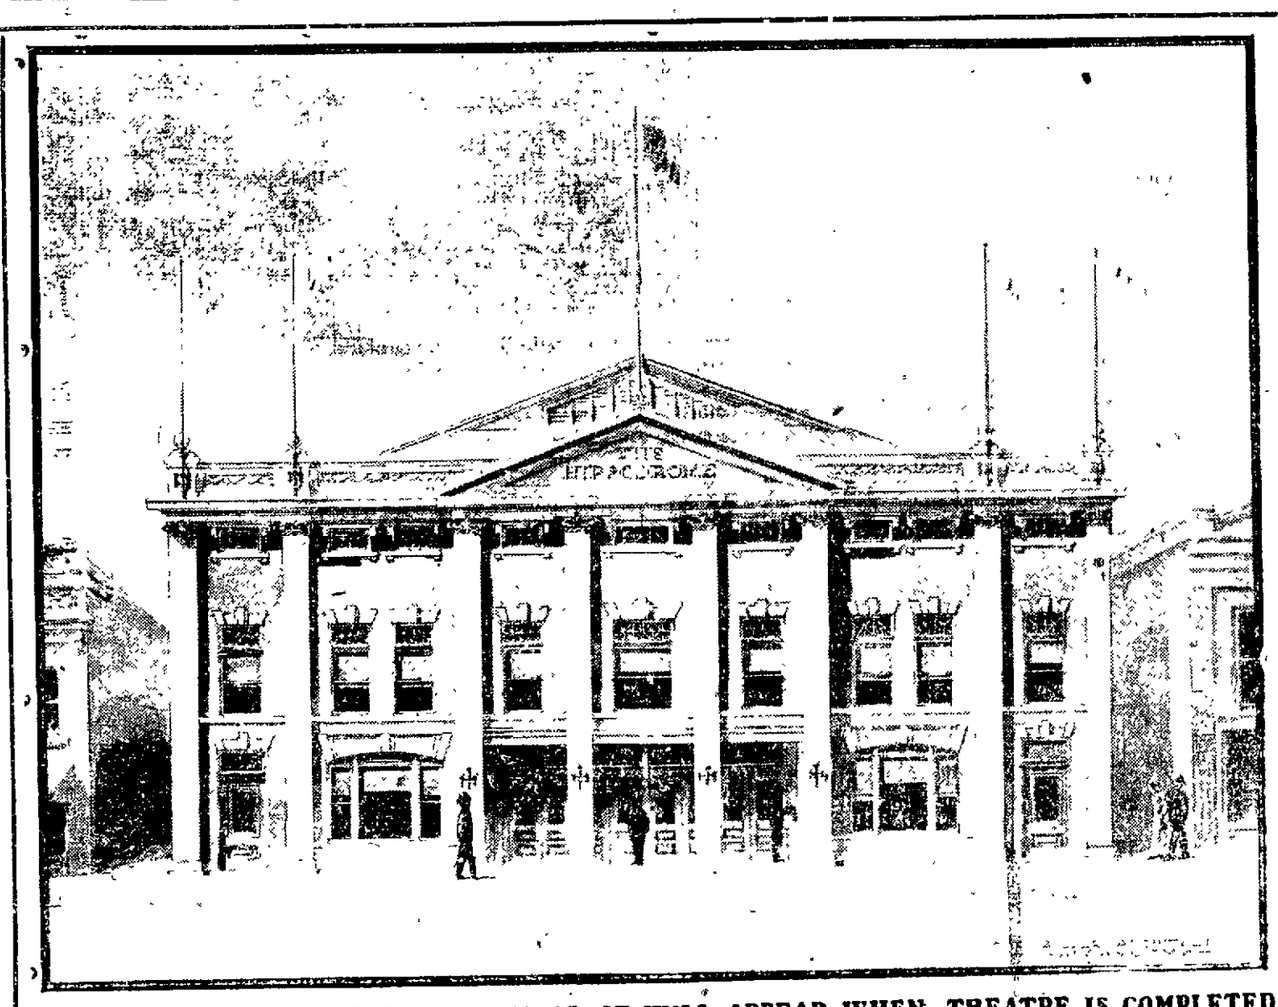

The interior will be handsomely decorated in bright and cheerful colors and the designs will be chaste and modest, the coloring rich and harmonious without gaudiness.

The stage dimensions will be 70 by 30 feet, and will be provided with all the latest "working" features, such as traps, side, center and quarter sectional bridges, sinks, grooves, etc.

A full and complete stock of scenery, drop curtains, asbestos fire curtain, as well as all modern appurtenances for the handling of any kind of attraction, no matter how large, including the large musical comedies, will also be provided.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of 1,500 people. Both auditorium and balcony floors will be on an incline, and opera chairs placed on raised platforms. Large comfortable chairs will be provided for the auditorium and balcony.

The boxes and lodges will be neatly draped and decorated to harmonize with the other decorations of the building.

REPRODUCTION OF FRONT ELEVATION AS IT WILL APPEAR WHEN THEATRE IS COMPLETED

Two of the principal and most important requirements of the modern theatre are its ventilation and fire escapes. A five foot space or alley will be retained on both sides of the house for the purpose of exits, fire escapes and ventilation. All doors will open outwards automatically, by simply pressing a button similar to an electric push.

The construction work will begin on the Reno theatre within thirty days from this date, and will be completed within four months.

The most important feature in connection with a business of this character is the matter of attractions. We are identified with the best vaudeville and dramatic bureaus in the United States; consequently, the best American and European vaudeville acts will be presented in the Reno theatre, and will be operated on strictly approved and legitimate lines, catering to men, women and children.

J. A. Burrichter, general manager of the Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company, is also connected with several of the large theatre circuits throughout the Northwest, including St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Duluth. He has had twenty years of experience in the theatrical business in all of its branches and is closely allied with the theatrical business throughout the middle west and the eastern part of the United States.

As an INVESTMENT THE NEVADA HIPPODROME CIRCUIT COMPANY has an authorized capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of $5.00 each. ::: The Company is now offering for a short time only 10,000 shares of the preferred treasury shares at par value, $5.00 each. The shares are preferred to the extent of receiving all the net profits of the business until the principal of the investment is repaid to the holder, after which time all shares will share and share alike in the profits. The profits will be distributed quarterly. ::: The earning power of this proposition, plans, specifications, and further particulars can be had on application in person or by mail at the offices of the Company.

Shocking Brutality

THE need of a humane society that will act is seen in the story published in another column of the Journal today.

We have been told that there is a humane society in this city now and that it has a set of officers. Well, the cemeteries have men just as much as Reno has a humane society, if it be a fact that one was in existence yesterday and let that cow lie there uncared for and in torture.

If there is a humane society in Reno, let it get to work, discharge all its present officials and put live men and women in office—men and women who will work for the cause of humanity and not sit back doing nothing while grievous instances of cruelty to animals and to human beings, too, abound.

If there is a humane society in Reno, WHERE WAS IT YESTERDAY?

Who are its officers? They may be very estimable persons, as far as we know, but they are out of place as directors of an organization that, to be of any account, must be constantly at work.

The Journal recommends that, disregarding any association that may have been formed in times past in Reno, the live people of the town form a real humane society to work for human beings as well as for brutes.

In the meantime, less red tape and a little more energy on the part of the public officials who are charged with enforcing the ordinances of the county and of the city would be in better taste. Someone was to blame for the horrible cruelty practiced on the tortured cow and it ought to be the business of the public prosecutor to find out who the person was. Then punish him. Such heartless cruelty as was displayed should be handled without mercy.

Pay of the Navy

THE impression seems to prevail in some newspaper offices that our naval officers are poorly paid, and last week the Oakland Tribune, usually well-informed, said that naval officers are condemned to celibacy or to fortune-hunting.

The officers of the navy are as well paid in proportion to the services they render as they ought to be. The question of whether they marry or not cuts no figure in the discussion. If they choose to marry they will sacrifice some of their selfish pleasures and do as clerks and business men do on shore—save their money and economize generally. They do not have to be mean to do so, either, as a consideration of the pay table will show.

Thus, Admiral Dewey, who leads a quiet and honorable life, with no duties to worry over to any extent, just as the people intended he should do, gets $13,500 a year, whether at sea or on shore. The first nine rear-admirals on the list get $7,500 at sea, and $6,375 on shore duty. The second nine get $5,500 at sea and $4,675 on shore. Captains are paid $3,500 at sea and $2,975 on shore duty, or, if made chiefs of bureaus at Washington, in recognition of the increased expense they are paid $5,500 a year and rank as rear-admirals.

In addition to this pay, all officers are given the same allowances, or commutation of the same, as officers in the army of corresponding rank, and the admiral is allowed $125 for commutation of quarters.

The pay is ample for American citizens. They do not have to splurge abroad and they accomplish as much with their pay as others who have private estates do. The fact is, the officers would like to get more money, of course—who wouldn't?—but they are not so unreasonable as some of the people who are continually fighting for more pay for "our brave defenders." The officers from commander down get higher pay than is given by any European country, as everyone knows.

There has been a general advance of pay all along the line during recent years and, in our opinion, the best thing we can do for naval officers, and for public officials in general, is to let them understand that they are now being paid just as much as the country things they should be, and let it go at that.

The Ship Subsidy Bill

THE president of the United States ought to understand that it is in bad taste for him to write letters such as that which he has just sent to Representative Pollard of Nebraska, defending the course of the administration in seeking, during the last session of congress, to force the adoption by the representatives of the people of a measure to which they were opposed.

The way in which the ship subsidy bill was forced through the house of representatives was scandalous. Promises of place, threats of political ruin, and unfair tactics of all kinds, were resorted to by the friends and servants of Roosevelt to pass the act. Thanks to the sturdy opposition that developed, it was defeated for the time.

Since adjournment, a great light has evidently reached the White House's executive chamber, and, under its illumination, Theodore Roosevelt has been able to see that the people did not approve his conduct. At once he writes a letter defending his course—not openly a letter of defense, but in reality that is what it amounts to. And, it is unfortunate that the president has resorted to what, in the case of any one except the president of the United States, would be called deliberate sophistication.

For example, he says that the shipping of America has been driven from the high seas, because it cannot compete with the heavily subsidized steamship companies of foreign countries and partly because of the high wages and high standard of living that we expect for our sailors.

That is simply rot. "High wages" is false. The men get barely enough to live on except where, as in the coastwise trade, they have a strong union and force a meagre wage from reluctant owners. As to the high standard of living, Mr. Roosevelt has evidently never taken a whiff of the forecastle's victuals and does not know the difference between tainted lobscouse and maggoty hard-tack.

It is all bosh. The president of the United States should be above resorting to such miserable equivocations. He knows better. He knows that the ship subsidy bill, as it was finally reached, would have played American shipping directly into the hands of its sternest competitors, the railway companies. If he does not know it, he should go to school to some of the corporation agents that have been hobnobbing with him lately at the White House.

The Peasant Rising

TO read the dispatches one would think that the Roumanian peasantry's rising was a small affair. In fact it is merely an indication of the fierce feeling that is being manifested all over Europe. The peasant has at last risen.

The landlords have slowly been acquiring all the land in the country, reducing the people to the tenant condition. The people have been heavily taxed to support the government and the landlords have taken all they made from the crops. The result has been that the peasantry have no longer a home and this has released them from the ties of home and country. They have become more or less irresponsible, degraded in general, and have indulged in brutalities that would shock even the man who left a cow to die by inches for thirty-six hours in Reno.

When the peasants of old France had reached that condition, it will be recalled, the rising of the jacquerie followed and that experience, even to the torture, pillage and outrage, burning of towns and estates, looting of treasuries, waste of provisions, and wanton murder, is being repeated in Roumania among the Moldavians in the twentieth century.

The peasant bands are still active and will probably continue to be so for a long time. The country has been ruined and there is nothing to support the populace. The result will be that bands of banditti will roam the country and it will revert to savagery—the fate of so many districts of the Balkan country. Other parts of Europe will follow the same course.

Searchlight All Right

HURRAH for Searchlight. She is on the railway map at last. Yesterday the first train of the Santa Fe drew into the young but enterprising camp, the sound of the whistle from the locomotive was the signal for cheers and the first train drew out again with its load of passengers and freight for the outer world.

Nevada will be covered with a net-work of steel before five years shall have passed and the roads will all be paying dividends, too—something that the new laws of the state will permit them to do, without being unjust to the people who patronize the roads.

But that has nothing to do with Searchlight. Searchlight does not have to wait five years or five months, or five minutes to get on a railway. Searchlight is there NOW.

INYO WANTS TO BE IN NEVADA

(From the Inyo Register)

The lines proposed for the state which the divisionalists propose to cut off of California includes the counties of San Diego, Riverside, Orange, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Kern, Tulare and Inyo. The area is 742,513 square miles, opulation 1900 369,977, assessed value in 1902 $269,335,977.

If the people of Inyo should have anything to say about their inclusion in the partnership their verdict would be emphatically negative, we believe. While the southern part of the state might have become our market, supply point and neighbors, it has taken little interest in this county beyond coveting some of the items which will make it prominent. The less alliance we must have with Los Angeles the better it will please Inyo.

If imperial California is to be dismembered, the sole reason (that of sentiment alone) for objection to separation from it will be removed.

In the break-up these counties east of the Sierras should fall where Nature's division line has been set, at the summit of the Sierras. The counties on this side should be made a part of the state with which they are identical in sympathy and general interest, and in which they will have some recognized standing. If possible by efforts to make the cession to Nevada a part of any state division plan, all should be ready to push that issue to a conclusion at the proper moment.

Los Angeles will doubtless oppose such an arrangement with all its power, simply because of the additional difficulties which would thereby arise in dealing with the water steal which it proposes to make. So far, apparently, it has been able to win out on the proposition that Inyo has no rights which need be respected further than the water scheme may dictate. If possible let us get into a commonwealth where we will be more than a region to be plundered.

The divisionists insist on the validity of a law passed in 1859, under which a popular vote was taken. The vote for division was 2477, against 828. Barring the ridiculousness of taking the expression fifty years old as a present-day guide, and the small vote then cast, it strikes us that the constitution adopted in 1879, and establishing state boundaries, must render that action void.

EVIDENCE OF PERMANENT PROSPERITY

(From the San Francisco Chronicle.)

The growth and prosperity of Nevada mining towns is eloquently testified to by the fact that many of them are providing themselves with fine places of amusement. Reno, Tonopah and Goldfield are all having commodious theaters built, and in the near future we shall hear of their being on the circuit of grand opera companies. The demand for such things is a better advertisement of the resources and prosperity of towns than glowing accounts of discoveries, or of the sale of mines for big prices. People are apt to discount stories of that kind, but no one attempts to dispute the fact that the liberal patronage of the drama indicates that the place which bestows it is booming.

UNION CARPENTERS STRIKE

MINNEAPOLIS, April 1.—About 1500 union carpenters walked out today in an effort to enforce their demands for an increased wage scale.

WANTS A DIVORCE

Roda Rynearson is the complainant in a suit for divorce against Walter Rynearson, the papers of which were filed in the office of Clerk Fogg yesterday. She alleges that her husband is a drunkard. The Rynearsons were married in Ely in 1901.

McCLINTOCK COMING HOME

VIENNA, April 1.—The military attache of the American embassy Major McClintock, is to leave Vienna after being received in farewell audience by Emperor Francis Joseph. It is believed that the American military attache at Berlin, Colonel Wisser, will also be accredited to Vienna.

COMMISSION WILL OPEN QUARTERS TODAY

Hon. H. E. Barlow, president of the railroad commission, will open headquarters in Carson City today. Offices will be opened in the capital and the board will immediately prepare for the work to be accomplished. Henry Thurtell, who is now a resident of Carson City, is waiting for the campaign to open to relieve the state. J. F. Shaughnessy of Reno will probably go down to confer with his associates when the preliminary arrangements are ended.

In the bill creating the commission there is no provision that the members shall give a bond. They are looked upon more as judges than state agents.

WHITTEMORE'S PLANS

C. O. Whittemore, chief counsel for the Clark railroad interests, has left Reno for the Southern Nevada camps, where he will make arrangements for an inspection by Egineer Maguire of the extensions of the line to Goldfield. The construction crews will probably finish their labors by building into Goldfield by early fall.

A depot will be erected at the terminal that will do away with the long haul, as at present made necessary by the location of the T. & G. station a mile from the center of the camp. Tracks will be laid to Columbia and Whittemore and his men will inspect a route to Manhattan. All nearby districts will be tapped. The amount of business handled now is enormous, and when all the ore is reached the tract will be extremely large.

PAT DWYER'S HEARING

Patsy Dwyer's hearing will begin before the supreme court May 27. The arguments for appeal will be made then. The argument in the case of A. T. Jackman, accused of the murder of a Goldfield messenger boy, will not be heard until April 29.

The funeral of Frank Flatz, the painter who died several days ago, will be held from the parlors of Fetters & Durrett this afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Father Tubman will officiate, and interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

Ramsey Bonanza Gold Mining Co.

It consists of six full claims located in the RAMSEY MINING DISTRICT near the town of Ramsey.

Already there has been more than 360 feet of actual development work gone on these claims consisting of two shafts on the ledge matter besides crosscutting. This is the famous Bennett group, and has been systematically developed so far under careful management.

The ore is free milling and the outlook is for one of the greatest properties in Nevada.

Roads have been built and the property is in shape for the installment of machinery, and in order to do this the company has decided to place a limited amount of treasury stock on the market at 20 cents a share. Only 25,000 shares will be sold now, so you will have to hurry—the people of Ramsey and vicinity who know the property are clamoring for the stock.

From the strikes already made in the Ramsey Comstock and other mines it is certain that Ramsey will be a high-grade camp not surpassed by any in the State. Get your subscription in early to

Shocking Brutality

THE need of a humane society that will act is seen in the story published in another column of the Journal today.

We have been told that there is a humane society in this city now and that it has a set of officers. Well, the cemeteries have men just as much as Reno has a humane society, if it be a fact that one was in existence yesterday and let that cow lie there uncared for and in torture.

If there is a humane society in Reno, let it get to work, discharge all its present officials and put live men and women in office—men and women who will work for the cause of humanity and not sit back doing nothing while grievous instances of cruelty to animals and to human beings, too, abound.

If there is a humane society in Reno, WHERE WAS IT YESTERDAY?

Who are its officers? They may be very estimable persons, as far as we know, but they are out of place as directors of an organization that, to be of any account, must be constantly at work.

The Journal recommends that, disregarding any association that may have been formed in times past in Reno, the live people of the town form a real humane society to work for human beings as well as for brutes.

In the meantime, less red tape and a little more energy on the part of the public officials who are charged with enforcing the ordinances of the county and of the city would be in better taste. DEATH OF YOUNG ESDEN CAUSES GRIEF

Clarence Esden well-known in Sparks and Reno whose serious illness was announced in Sunday's Journal died at Fallon Sunday afternoon. Surely his death can serve no compensating purpose. There may be can be nothing in God's great plan to cause the so untimely death of so much promise. If death is a crime if mortal sickness is no part of God's economy then the grief will be more bitter and it is time that [illegible] should learn to live.

MILES OF WASH-OUTS ON THE N. C. O. RAILROAD

"Six hundred Western Pacific railroad laborers are working on the Nevada-California-Oregon line to repair the washed-out track," stated General Superintendent Dunaway yesterday. "There are 500 washouts between Reno and Likely. Some of the washouts are forty feet in depth and 600 feet in length. The storm hit the road harder than any other storm in history. Service will remain crippled, and great loss will result for weeks yet."

Today the management of the N. C. O. hopes to run a train through to Claireville on the Sierra Valley extension. Tomorrow traffic north of the junction will begin. But the travel is dangerous, and the engineers are using every care in running the trains over the road.

Telegraphic communication on the line ends at Amadee. Beyond that point only vague rumors have reached the central office, and the extent of damage will not be known until a train reaches the northern terminal.

In Surprise and Long valleys, according to Superintendent Dunaway, the track was swept away almost entirely. This, the officials declare, is responsible for the service rendered during the last few days. Big holes have been washed under the rails, and the steel has been carried far down the canyons in other places.

Temporary tracks have been laid around the most serious washouts, the work being performed by a large number of the contractors laboring for the Gould line. Construction on the Western Pacific along the N. C. O. right of way will be postponed until the latter line is repaired.

The N. C. O. is not discouraged by the effects of the flood.

"We have lost miles—not feet—of track," Dunaway sorrowfully stated, "but we will continue operating the trains if Providence wills, notwithstanding floods and stories to the effect that we are sold to the W. P."

CARSON'S LEISURE HOUR CLUB IN A BERSERK RAGE

Secretary of State Gib Douglas has antagonized the Leisure Hour club of Carson City by abruptly dismissing from his office a lady clerk who had been in his employ for two years under promise of a place down stairs when the legislature passed the bill giving him extra help. Douglas is sore at the world now over the library and other affairs and the latest movement against him has created some comment in the capital city.

Miss Carrie Cottrell procured the place created by the legislative action. The girl in the supreme court clerks' room, who labored for two years without salary and with only small fees for recompense, has resigned.

Women mixed in the politics of the kind, promise interesting results before the next campaign.

PARRY HAS ADOPTED PLANS FOR HIS THEATRE BUILDING

R. W. Parry has finally decided to carry out his project of erecting on the site of the present livery stables, bearing his name, at the corner of Fourth and Sierra streets, a three-story building, to be devoted largely to theatre purposes, as stated in the Journal last month. Since explaining his idea to the Journal he has arranged with a Los Angeles firm of architects for the plans.

The building, as told a Journal reporter yesterday, will have a frontage on Fourth street of 240 feet a little more than half that on Sierra street.

The theatre proper will occupy all the ground floor with the exception of three store rooms in front. Two galleries and a very large stage will be features.

HAYWOOD IS TO BE TRIED ON MAY 9

BOISE Idaho, April 1.—At the convening of Judge Wood's county court here this morning the trial of William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, who is under indictment jointly with Charles H. Moyer, president of the federation, and George A. Pettibone, former member of the executive committee, for the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, was set for trial May 9.

MERCANTILE COMPANY'S STORES

The Reno Mercantile Company is rapidly getting its business in order to accommodate the public in its new store at the corner of Commercial Row and Sierra street. A large force of clerks and carpenters are at work, and shortly the company will be ready for business.

The first floor will be devoted to the retail business, and the floor above and the basement will be used for the housing of a large stock of goods.

TORTURED IN THE POLICE OFFICE AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 1.—Leonard Leopold, one of the defendants in the Margaret Leslie murder trial, declared on the stand today that he had never known Margaret Leslie and had never seen her.

He said he had been kept in the office of Chief of Police Collins from eight o'clock on the morning of Saturday until six o'clock on the afternoon of Sunday and that during that time he was repeatedly kicked and throttled by the police because he would not admit having murdered the actress.

He said he had been denied food and water, but was told by the police that he could have what he wanted if he would make a confession.

"PLAY BALL" ALL CONWAY'S COLTS ARE WAITING TO HEAR

TO MEET THE GRASS VALLEY NINE APRIL 14

Westall of University Fame Will Pitch for the Overlands Until the Latter Part of June—Local Team Has Practice on Sunday

"To every young man I would say: Organize a baseball team, and play. Go out into the fields and lay out a diamond for your game. It is practice that will make you perfect and it is playing the game that will make a man of you, mentally and physically. It will make you quick to act and quick to think; it trains the mind as well as the body."—Advice of "Muggsy" McGraw, manager-player of the New York Giants.

Manager Conway of the Overland baseball team received a letter yesterday from the Grass Valley nine accepting the challenge to play here April, 14, Sunday. Expecting the communication, the Overlands, opened the season Sunday by a hard practice at the State Park grounds. These practices will be continued until the game, and then arrangements will be made to play other aggregations throughout the state.

Conway's colts are good material. The services of Westall, the famous University of Nevada pitcher, have been procured until the latter part of June, and with other capable men, the list of games won by Reno may be large.

MORAN AND LEEPER HAD DIFFERENT IDEAS OF EVIDENCE

Two alleged pickpockets, giving their names as Joe Martin and Edward Bailey, arrested Friday night by Chief of Police Leeper, were freed yesterday from custody, and told to hurry out of town.

District Attorney Moran did not think the evidence against the men was sufficient for him to prosecute them successfully for the crime, and he gave the order to the chief for their release.

Leeper said he caught one of the men in the act of stocking his hand in the pocket of an old man at the Southern Pacific depot.

NEGRESS SET FREE

J. E. Rule, the Tonopah gambler, probably regrets that he went to law to recover $580 that he declared was stolen from him by Dora French of the tenderloin. Dora was dismissed in the district court yesterday, because of lack of evidence to prosecute her. But before the dismissal she told some things about the plaintiff that startled the dignity of the bench, and made the attorneys titter. Rule answered the counter charges of the woman by asserting that everything she said was a lie. But the judge held that his efforts at conviction were not evidence, and the negress defendant was allowed to pursue her dissipated life.

NEW BILL AT THE GRAND--- MRS. WIGGS THIS WEEK

Withal Manager Cliff was disappointed in two of his acts not arriving in time for the performance last evening the show at the opening night of this week's bill was very good, having some highly pleasing features.

Joe Hayden, the man famed for writing the old time favorite "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," and his daughter, Ola, who has played the Orpheum circuit, present a clever skit, giving Miss Ola a chance to show her rich contralto voice and at the same time keep the audience interested with a sketch of pathos taken from life. They also dance well together.

James Hennessy, the rapid fire joke speller, remains another week with a new bunch of funny ones which he hands out in very good shape and fast enough to keep one guessing where one leaves and the other starts in.

Edouard Scott has a very pretty song entitled "Fare Thee Well, My Old Kentucky," which he will render this week. The pictures are good.

Among the moving pictures are "Fan Making in Japan," "the Harvard-Yale Boat Race," the "Steeplechase," and others which are amusing.

With the other two acts which Manager Cliff will add to the bill tonight the Grand will have a creditable performance for its patrons this week.

Crowds are flocking every night this week to the Olympic roller skating rink to witness the sensational trick and comedy cyclists who give a half hour's exhibition from nine thirty to ten o'clock. The three men certainly do some very remarkable stunts and receive unstinted applause. Unfortunately the little lady Fraviola, one of the performers, dislocated her knee pan some three weeks ago and is unable to do her part this week. However the others are well worth seeing. Zarrow was formerly of Zeb and Zarrow of Zig Zag Allen fame and also of West minstrels. Peters and Gray are exceptionally fine also in their hazardous work, an dthe clown fun maker is very much in evidence. They change their programme and costumes every night and the whole show is a treat enjoyed by a large attendance nightly.

Skating continues before and after the half hour performance until eleven o'clock. Special matinee Saturday and Sunday next. During the evening Professor W. A. La Duque, the expert skater of the big Madison Square Garden roller rink, New York city, who is in Reno for a time giving lessons here, gave some remarkable fancy dancing on skates to the enjoyment of all.

"I've made it a practice to put all my worries down in the bottom of my heart, then set on the lid an' smile."

"Some folks goes right under when trouble comes, but I carry mine fur an' easy."

These are but a few samples of the everyday philosophy of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," who will greet a Reno audience for the first time at McKissick's next Thursday evening. She will be the central figure of the Cabbage Patch in her faded glory, happy contented smile, false curls, and worn-out clothes.

The audience will watch with intense interest the preparation to see, 'the greatest extravaganza of the season at the opery," including the fun of having the little Wiggses having their frizzled locks carefully ironed, and their enjoyment through the evening's supepr after the theater, although Mrs. Wiggs herself has "Jes about as much idea of a supper as a goat had of kid gloves." Miss Torreyson has made a succes sof this part and will show the audience the American spirit of optimism and pronounced type of American humor, on the background of the Cabbage Patch.

The local talent are doing all in their power to make the affair of the season. Garrets have been ransacked and garment a century old been resurrected for the stage costumes. Miss Howe, as Miss Hazy, promises to produce manys peals of hearty laughter by her character wor kand costume. The other members of the cast are using their best efforts to be able to give their various roles full justice.

CARSON'S THOUSAND DOLLAR GIRL'S TRIP

Carson City's "Thousand Dollar Girl," Miss Mamie Berning, will pass through Reno soon to visit ,and then proceed to Oakland, where she will attend a business college. The title applied to the girl gets it derivation from the gift of $500 from R. L. Colburn and Milton Detch of Goldfield, who became enamored to her when she was waiting on them at the Arlington during the last days of the legislature.

Colburn gave his check for his share of the amount, and State Senator George Pyne, the stakeholder, has received the same sum from Detch. Orvis Ring, superintendent of public instruction in Nevada, is caring for the money. He will act as Miss Berning's advisor during her school days.

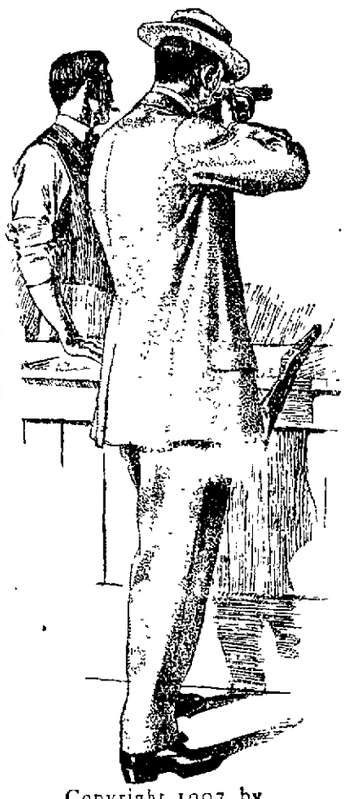

APPROACHING MARRIAGE

Claude Smith of Goldfield and Miss Evelyn S. Short, of Carson City, are to be married at the Palace hotel in San Francisco on the 17th of the month.

The groom elect is well known in the state, and especially so in the southern part of it, where he has been for some time in the mining business, in which he has been remarkably successful.

The couple are booked for passage to Honolulu on the steamer Korea, sailing the 23rd.

ROUND MOUNTAIN HAS BRIGHT FUTURE

GOOD LEDGES ENCOUNTERED ON SEVERAL PROPERTIES

From Present Indications This District Looks Like One of the Coming Camps of the Great Mineral State of Nevada

News from Round Mountain is daily growing more encouraging The vein in the Round Mountain Mining Company has been cut at depth of 250 feet where it is equally as rich as at any higher point The vein is five feet wide and is gilt edged milling rock This is the deepest workings in ore in the district On the Mountain Fairview the vein has been cut at the 170 foot mark It is an immense body of fine milling ore The Round Mountain Sphinx has also encountered the ledge at a depth of 200 feet It is as good as on the upper level

A fine shoot of ore is being opened on the 100-foot level of the Round Mountain Extension

James R Davis of this district says The district generally shows great improvement the life of the veins and in values as depth is attained being most encouraging

The pipe for the four-mile line from Jefferson canyon to the Round Mountain mill is now on the ground It is being laid as rapidly as possible The management hopes to complete the work in two weeks The mill will then be started Altogether Round Mountain looks like one of the comers of the state

Word comes that a three foot vein averaging $40 to the ton has been uncovered on the Wonder View property in the district of that name This property lies 3000 feet southwest of the Jackpot and adjoins the Mass group

Some good values have been obtained from claims recently located at Rose Creek about twenty miles south of Winnemucca

A ledge of very good grade of silver ore has recently been opened up in the development work now going on in the Spring City mines

The Texas group of claims, incorporated recently by the Ramsey Amalgamated Mining Company, will soon commence active operations in the Ramsey district. The ground is well located and include some very promising mineral. Assays have been taken running over $1,000 the ton. One claim takes in a part of the promising Garavanta-Sullivan dyke. The first piece of work to be done will be the sinking of a 200 foot vertical shaft.

All arrangements are complete for starting the big working shaft on the Walkover property in the Ramsey district and work will be actively prosecuted. At the 100 foot level crosscuts will be run through the ledge. The district expects another big producer when this mine starts shipping its high grade ores.

Monette and Truett of the famous Mohawk mine are in the way of repeating their sensational strike of about a year ago, this time of the Fairview property in the Seven Troughs district. The new vein encountered is believed to be separate from the Original Fairview strike and high assays can be taken from the ledge any place on the surface.

P. A. Hinson, Zab Silve, and Felix Confliagliacco have sold their group of copper claims at Granite Creek, about twenty miles from Golconda, to an eastern syndicate. Good assays have been had in this property, some of them running over 50 per cent copper.

LIDA QUEEN WILL HAVE STAMP MILL

MACHINERY HAS ARRIVED AND IS BEING INSTALLED

The Shaft on This Property is Down Two Hundred and Fifty Feet and the Ledge Shows Width of Six Feet in Three Levels

Within the next six weeks the Lida Queen property located near Pigeon Springs will be the site for a ten stamp mill. The machinery has arrived at the mine and is being installed as fast as possible.

The mill for the Lida Queen Company, when completed, will be equipped with ten 1000-pound stamps, four belt concentrators, two Wilfly tables, a forty-ton cyanide plant, a ninety-horse power boiler and an eighty-horse power Corliss engine. In addition to this a large machine shop and an assay office have been erected on the ground.

This shaft on this property has reached a depth of 250 feet and from the different levels drifting has been on an extensive scale. There are three levels in the Lida Queen, the ledge showing a width of six feet at each level.

The new gasoline hoisting plant has been installed at the mine, and when the mill is ready to go into commission, sinking will be resumed and the shaft will be continued down to an indefinite depth.

Five hundred dollars will be paid for the return of the jewelry taken from the residence of P C Drescher at 1423 H Street, Sacramento, Cal., on the evening of February 21, 1907. Communicate with Wm. E Kleinsorge, P. O. Box 68, Sacramento, Cal. m21tf

LAND QUESTION IS THE TROUBLE

American and English Authorities Quoted in Russian Parliament in Favor of Individual Ownership

ST PETERSBURG April 1—The discussion of the agrarian problem to which the first Russian parliament almost entirely devoted it legislative activity began in the lower house today Over a hundred speakers immediately signified their intention of participating in the debate to which according to the plans of parliamentary leaders only one day per week will be devoted

The question is considered to be of far less importance now than it was last year Neither the constitutional democrats nor the socialists have much hope of arriving at practical results in the life of the present parliament as they are convinced that any measure involving the compulsory expropriation of land which is the basic principle of all the liberal solutions will immediately be vetoed by the emperor and be regarded by the cabinet as a justification for the dissolution of parliament

The house however was forced to begin the discussion of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programme but the great mass of the speakers are peasants whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question The real work will be done by the committee to which the various project will be referred

The project of the constitutional democrats is practically identical with last years draft It involves the compulsory expropriation of all estates above established maximums to be determined in each province by committees created for this purpose The bill contemplates individual ownership whereas the project of the group of toil which was also introduced today proposes the nationalization of all the land in the empire The national socialist introduced a bill repealing all Premier Stolypin's temporary agrarian legislation but this probably will be allowed to die a natural death in committee

The first speaker today was Prince Iwitopolk Mirsky a land owner of Bessarabia and a relative of the ex minister of the interior who made a long speech in defense of individual property quoting liberally from American and English authorities upon the subject

IMMIGRATION RUSH KEEPS NEW YORK OFFICIALS BUSY

NEW YORK April 2—The resources of Immigration Commission Watchers and hi island are taxed to the utmost these days by the spring rush of immigrants which has started out in a way which leads the authorities at Ellis Island to expect an unprecedented arrival of aliens at this port during the summer More than 1,000 immigrants were landed from eight ships during two days at the beginning of last week while reports to the steamship agents in this city are to the effect that every station abroad from which immigrants sail is overcrowded with other thousands of future American citizens who have booked all third class accommodations for months ahead Most of these immigrant come from Italy and southern European ports lured by the news of abundant prosperity in the western states which has reached them in letters from relatives and friends already in this country so that unusual features of the present influx are the few who deshe to remain in New York and the immediate vicinity and the many who are bound for the west on through tickets As a consequence the Battery presents no more than its ordinary everyday aspect while the stations of all the big railroads leading west from Jersey City are overflowing with immigrants and their curious conglomerations of baggage

New York on account of the fact that the headquarters of the Russian Famine Relief committee are located here is beginning to realize something of the horrible condition of 30,000,000 starving Russian peasants Not only hunger but disease as well is ravaging their rank and threatening a death roll of millions Indeed so bad have matters become that the women of Russia in a letter just received by Samuel J Barrows the secretary of the committee have appealed to the women of America in their great extremity The letter cites the conditions in one village as typical of thousands and says At present the temperature in this village is in the neighborhood of twenty degrees below zero Many of the peasants are living in holes dug underground The are almost naked and they are without fuel for in this region the peasants make their fuel from straw and there has been no straw from which fuel can be made Their food is a sort of bread made from ground acorn or other uneatables to which has been added a little rye meal Typhus scurvy and blindness resulting from starvation are on all sides striking down grownup people and children This is not a single village for there are thousands like it and those thousands of villages have no hope unless aid comes to them from the outside Seventy five cents will keep a grownup person alive for a month Dr Barrows states that the committee whose offices are located at 135 East Fifteenth street will be glad to receive any contribution however small since life is to be saved immediate help is the chief requisite

New York consumes more canned goods than many other place in the country The neat packages and attractive labels are so well adapted to the narrow confines of life in a flat that it seemed as if a kink of providence had designed them a perfect complements to each other The half disclosures which accompanied the agitation over the pure food bill in congress however induced a sort of wistful curiosity to know what actually went with the label when it left the cannery, but then it was announced some time ago that the National Packers' association proposed to show this through the medium of an exposition to open in Chicago on May 1 and to come to New York sometime in the fall anxiety on the subject subsided and sales of canned goods resumed their normal proportions The later news that the big Chicago packers have so far evinced little disposition to enter exhibits however revives the suspicion that boneless chicken and other delicacies may not always be of strictly legitimate parentage Perhaps the shadow of the big stick behind the White House door falls most heavily here perhaps the packers of this section of the country have less to conceal, but it is the general opinion among them that the exposition will be a good thing and that they will be there—with the lids off the cans—when President Roosevelt presses the button which will open the exposition

A permanent national building to cost $14 000 000 dollars wherein to house a national theater a national library national art salon banquet hall and an exhibition hall and luxurious club rooms for each of the various state societies having headquarters in New York is the ambitious scheme propounded by these Sons of Isewhere for the education and uplifting of the native Gothamite Mr William J Worden of Michigan models admits that he is the father of the movement which was first discussed publicly and enthusiastically at the recent annual dinner of the Michigan Society at the Hotel Astor An interstate organization is forming to take charge of the movement which promises soon it is said to ripen into a speedy success Congress at its next session will be asked to appropriate $5 000 000 toward the cost of the enterprise and each of the state legislatures will be asked to contribute $200,000 to the same end It is argued in support of the scheme that most of the people who live in New York as well as a quarter of a million visitors daily are from other places anyway and that such a monument to the greatness of Elsewhere staring the haughty native sternly in the eye from some prominent corner of Fifth avenue would do much to teach him how little he really counts and foster that feeling of proprietorship and superiority so inadequately expressed at the annual talkfests of the various state societies

In view of the appeal of a delegation of New York clergymen to President Roosevelt to aid them in inducing the people of the metropolis to attend religious services it is interesting to note that there is one church in New York that is not troubled by the problem of filling its pews perhaps for the reason that it is an altogether new kind of church based upon the doctrine of the brotherhood and independence of man and uniting all creeds while advocating none The People church as it is called flourishes in the midst of New Yorks teeming east side population under the auspices of the People's Institute Its meetings are held during twenty five or thirty weeks of the year in the large hall of Cooper Union and not infrequently the attendance is two thousand or more In this unique church the personal views of the speaker upon controversial religious questions are never sought to be impressed not only for the reason that the rules forbid any attempt at proselyting or any attack of creed upon creed but to audience enjoys the unique privilege of answering back and the clergyman who speaks for the first time from Cooper Union platform faces the novelty of having crude thought or inept statements challenged and perhaps refuted by some one of his hearers According to the statements of Professor Charles Sprague Smith founder and director of the Institute an occasional roll call of the audience by isms discloses philosophical anarchists socialists of every phase single taxers and adherents of every creed under the sun as well as adherents of no creed at all

ST. PETERSBURG, April 1.—The discussion of the agrarian problem, to which the first Russian parliament almost entirely devoted its legislative activity, began in the lower house today. Over a hundred speakers immediately signified their intention of participating in the debate, to which, according to the plans of parliamentary leaders, only one day per week will be devoted.

The house, however, was forced to begin the discussion of the agrarian problem as a concession to the peasant constituents of many of the members. Each political party has put forward three or four spokesmen to explain the features of the programmes, but the great mass of the speakers are peasants whose remarks will contribute but little to a solution of the question. The real work will be done by the committee to which the various projects will be referred.

The project of the constitutional democrats is practically identical with last year's draft. It involves the compulsory expropriation of all estates above established maximums to be determined in each province by committees created for this purpose. The bill contemplates individual ownership, whereas the project of the "group of toil," which was also reintroduced today, proposes the nationalization of all the land in the empire. The national socialist introduced a bill repealing all Premier Stolypin's temporary agrarian legislation, but this probably will be allowed to die a natural death in committee.

The first speaker today was Prince Iviatopolk-Mirsky, a land-owner of Bessarabia, and a relative of the ex-minister of the interior, who made a long speech in defense of individual property, quoting liberally from American and English authorities upon the subject.

IMMIGRATION RUSH KEEPS NEW YORK OFFICIALS BUSY

NEW YORK, April 2.—The resources of Immigration Commission Watchers and his island are taxed to the utmost these days by the spring rush of immigrants, which has started out in a way which leads the authorities at Ellis Island to expect an unprecedented arrival of aliens at this port during the summer. More than 12,000 immigrants were landed from eight ships during two days at the beginning of last week, while reports to the steamship agents in this city are to the effect that every station abroad from which immigrants sail is overcrowded with other thousands of future American citizens, who have booked all third-class accommodations for months ahead. Most of these immigrants come from Italy and southern European ports, lured by the news of abundant prosperity in the western states which has reached them in letters from relatives and friends already in this country; so that unusual features of the present influx are the few who desire to remain in New York and the immediate vicinity and the many who are bound for the west on through tickets. As a consequence, the Battery presents no more than its ordinary everyday aspect, while the stations of all the big railroads leading west from Jersey City are overflowing with immigrants and their curious conglomerations of baggage.

New York, on account of the fact that the headquarters of the Russian Famine Relief committee are located here, is beginning to realize something of the horrible condition of 20,000,000 starving Russian peasants. Not only hunger, but disease as well, is ravaging their ranks, and threatening a death roll of millions. Indeed so bad have matters become that the women of Russio, in a letter just received by Samuel J. Barrows, the secretary of the committee, have appealed to the women of America in their great extrmity. The letter cites the conditions in one village as typical of thousands and says: "At present the temperature in this village is in the neighborhood of twenty degrees below zero. Many of the peasants are living in holes dug underground. They are almost naked and they are without fuel; for in this region the peasants make their fuel from straw ,and there has been no straw from which fuel can be made. Their food is a sort of bread made from ground acorn or other uneatables to which has been added a little rye meal. Typhus, scurvy and blindness resulting from starvation are on all sides striking down grownup people and children. This is not a single village, for there are thousands like it, and those thousands of villages have no hope unless aid comes to them from the outside. Seventy-five cents will keep a grownup person alive for a month." Dr. Barrows states that the committee, whose offices are located at 135 East Fifteenth street, will be glad to receive any contribution, however small, since if life is to be saved immediate help is the chief requisite.

New York consumes more canned goods tha nany other place in the country. The neat packages and attractive labels are so well adapted to the narrow confines of life in a flat, that it seemed as if a kink of providence had designed them as perfect complements to each other. The half disclosures which accompanied the agitation over the pure food bill in congress, however, induced a sort of wistful curiosity to know what actually went with the label when it left the cannery; but hen it was announced some time ago that the National Packers' association proposed to sho this through the medium of an exposition to open in Chicago on May 1 and to come to New York sometime in the fall, anxiety on the subject subsided and sales of canned goods resumed their normal proportions. The later news that the big Chicago packers have so far evinced little disposition to enter exhibits, however, revives the suspcion that boneless chicken and other lelicacies may not always be of strictly legitimate parentage. Perhaps the shadow of the big stick behind the White House door falls more heavily here, perhaps the packers of this section of the country have less to conceal; but it is the general opinion among them that the exposition will be a good thing and that they will be there—with the lids off the cans—when President Roosevelt presses the buton which will open the exposition.

A permanent national building, to cost $14,000,000 dollars, wherein to house a national theater, a national library, national art salon, banquet hall, and an exhibition hall and luxurious club rooms for each of the various state societies having headquarters in New York, is the ambitious scheme propounded by these sons of isewhere for the education and uplifting of the native Gothamite. Mr. William J. Worden of Michigan modestly admits that he is the father of the movement, which was first discussed publicly and enthusiastically at the recent annual dinner of the Michigan Society at the Hotel Astor. An interstate organization is forming to take charge of the movement, which promises, so it is said, to ripen into a speedy success. Congress at its next sion will be asked to appropriate $5,000,000 toward the cost of the enterprise, and each of the state legislatures will be asked to contribute $200,000 to the same end. It is argued in suport of the scheme that most of the people who live in New York, as well as a quartel of a million visitors daily, are from other places anyway, and that such a monument to the greatness of Elsewhere staring the haughty native sternly in the eye from some prominent corner of Fifth avenue, would do much to teach him how little he really counts and foster that feeling of proprietorship and superiority so inadequately expressed at the annual talkfests of the various state societies.

In view of the appeal of a delegation of New York clergymen to President Roosevelt to aid them in inducing the people of the metropolis to attend religious services it is interesting to note that there is one church in New Yorkk that is not troubled by the problem of filling its pews, perhaps for the reason that it is an altogether new kind of church, based upon the doctrie of the brotherhood and interdependence of man, and uniting all creeds while advocating none. The "People church," as it is called, flourishes in the midst of New York's lemming ast Side population, under the auspices of the People's Institute. Its meetings are held during twenty-five or thirty weeks of the year in the large hall of Cooper Union, and not infrequently the attendance is two thousand or more. In this unique church the personal views of the speaker upon controversal religious questions are never sought to be impressed, not only for the reason that the rules forbid any attempt at proselyting or any attack of creed upon creed, but the audience enjoys the unique privilege of answering back; and the clergyman who speaks for the first time from Cooper Union platform faces the novelty of having crude thought or inept statements challenged, and perhaps refuted, by some one of his hearers. Acording to the statements of Professor Charles Sprague Smith, founder and director of the Institute, an occasional roll call of the audience by "isms" discloses "philosophical anarchists, socialists of every phase, singe taxers, and adherents of every creed under the sun as wel as adherents of no cred at all."

Kaiser William and Sultan Abdul Contribute Toward the Erection of a German Building Where the Ailing Will be Cared for Hereafter

JERUSALEM, April 1—The foundation stone of the new German hospital upon the Mount of Olives was laid yesterday in the presence of the governor of Jerusalem, the other local officials and many spectators, to the accompaniment of cheers for Emperor William and for the sultan of Turkey, who gave the land and authorized the construction of the hospital.

Dr. Drylander, the court chaplain of Berlin, represented Emperor William and Baron von Mirbach represented the empress. Dr. Drylander read a telegram from the emperor greeting the Germans, the local authorities and the representatives of other nations and faiths who attended the ceremony and invoking the blessing of the Almighty upon the hospital.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS MANY IN BITLIS, ARMENIA

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 1.—The report that a severe earthquake, accompanied by loss of life, has occurred at Bitlis, Turkish Armenia, appears to be confirmed but the number of deaths is unknown.

According to advices received in New York from W. W. Peet, treasurer of the American mission at Constantinople, the Americans and their people in the mission at Bitlis have been rendered homeless and the snow in the neighborhood is twenty-five feet deep. Assistance was urgently requested.

According to the record available, the Rev. Royal M. Cole, Lizzie Cole, Dr. H. L. Underwood, Charlotte Ely and Mrs. A. C. Ely of the Eastern Turkey mission, are at Bitlis and Miss Nellie A. Cole, who had not been appointed a missionary, was working in co-operation with the missionaries of the American board.

EASTER IN THE RENO CHURCHES

Five Thousand Attend Services Including Knights Templars from Carson and Virginia City

Threatening weather did not prevent the religiously inclined to visit the churches for the Sunday Easter service. Places of worship were crowded to the doors. The congregations at the Episcopal and Catholic churches could not be accommodated, and many respectfully stood in the street while they listened to the ceremony inside. Five thousand people, it is estimated, visited the houses of God here at the end of Lent.

Morning and evening services drew the crowds. The floral spectacle was effective, although marred slightly by the recent inclement weather. Those who heard, state that the music was the best ever produced at church affairs in Reno.

Knights Templar numbering about 150 visited this city to attend the ceremony at the Episcopal church. The members were from Carson and Virginia City.

COLLIDE HEAD ON AND SIX ARE KILLED

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 1.—Six trainmen were killed in a head-on collision between two freight trains on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad, six miles south of here today. The dead are Engineer Wooden, Fireman Hints, Engineer Caldwell, Fireman Wallace and two brakemen, names unknown.

Both trains were running at a high rate of speed. Fire broke out immediately following the collision and the two brakemen were cremated before assistance could reach them. Over three hundred head of cattle were burned and eight cars of merchandise were destroyed.

Failure of the crew of the northbound train to receive an order is said to be responsible for the wreck.

Three Classes of Investors

1st. The man who is on the lookout for a good thing and knows one when he sees it.

2nd. The man who judges the future by the past, who has seen Reno and all of Nevada—like the Phoenix of old—rise out of the ashes of the past and start on its flight of glory. The man who has faith in the future of one of the loveliest spots on earth, filled with the best class of people that God ever created.

3rd. The man who wants a home in a progressive city of ideal climate, where he can make a good living and where he and his family can enjoy the privilege of good schools and churches.

Three Classes of Non-Investors

1st. The pessimist. The man who is not willing to admit that we are making rapid strides to greatness.

2nd. The man who sees only the past and goes about with this cry on his lips. "Too High! Too high!! Why I could have bought that property for one-half that price a year ago." but he didn't and he never will.

3rd. The man whose life has been a failure so far because he hasn't been alive to the things that are happening every day all around him.

AUDUBON SOCIETY SENDS OUT A VIGOROUS LETTER

DECLARES WAR ON SALE OF AIGRETTE

Snowy Herons Diminishing Rapidly in Number Through Practice of Women Wearing Their Plumes on Spring Hats—Association's Campaign

NEW YORK, April 2.—Easter Sunday has for the last time been marked by the barbaric display of plumes torn from the bleeding backs of an almost exterminated breed of birds, according to the leaders of a national movement which was started in this city today. Backed by the General Feneration and State Federations of Clubwomen throughout the country as well as by every humane and sportsman's organization, the National Association of Audubon Societies is laying extensive plans for a campaign which will finally put an end to the sale of the aigrette and the massacre of the Snowy Heron, to whom nature has given it as a decoration in mating time

In Louisiana the Audubon workers have just won a hard legal battle and secured in higher court a verdict on apepal, which it is believed has established a good legal precedent upon which all minmners may be severely punished for the sale or possession of these bloody trophies of the wholesale butchery of the heron in the Florida wilds. Judge Chretien of the First City Criminal court of New Orleans has sustained the verdict of a lower court and sentenced a millinery store propriteor of that city to $50 or a term of thirty days in prison. The opinion upholds the force of the "model" law, which the Audubon societies have succeeded in having passed in all but eight states in the union, and within the next few months every milliner who deals in aigrettes will be prosecuted along the same lines.

More effective even than this campaign for vigorous enforcement of law against the commercial bird butchers, the Audubon officials believe, will be the stand which has just been taken by the women of this country through the various federations of clubs and other women's organizations. The following pledge is today being circulated to women by the general federation, two leading members of which, Miss Alice J. Fletcher and Mrs. Sara S. Platt Decker, have issued a strong appeal against the wearing of aigrettes in the official bulletin of the organization:

"Whereas, the number of our beautiful snowy herons is rapidly diminishing with a likelihood of their becoming extinct; and, whereas, the demand for aigrettes for millinery purposes is responsible for the slaughter of these feathered innocents, and the consequent death of the nestlings;

Therefore, resolved, that we, the undersigned, pledge ourselves to refrain from wearing any such badge of cruelty as the aigrette or the plumage of any wild bird, and that we will use al possible influence to restrain from doing so.

In the face of the general invitation of this movement the milliners of this city are today not only offering to equip Easter bonnets with any amount of heron plumes but causing fashion notes to appear saying that the "wisp of aigrette is still considered an appropriate garniture for bonnets." To those ladies who question the propriety of adding the scalp of a mutilated mother bird to their headdress, they protest that the aigrettes are artificial, though it has been repeatedly proven an impossibility to counterfeit the plumes of the snowy heron.

Reports from the Everglades of Florida, where the Heron congregate for the mating and breeding season, are daily reaching the headquarters of the National Association of Audubon societies at 141 Broadway in this city. They show that the destriction of the birds for their nuptial adornment is going on even more extensively than ever. The mutilated carcasses of the females strew the ground while their young starve to death nearby. Often the wholesale butchery of a whole colony of these birds, who grow tame and domestic at the mating season, will yield only a handful of the aigrete plumes.

President Roosevelt has already personally asured William Dutcher, president of the association, that Mrs. Roosevelt i seven more desirious than he to support the new movement, while Queen Alexandra of England has offered the use of her influence for a similar movement in Great Britain. The wide popular supoprt that has already been offered to the Audubon societies in the opening of this campaign is considered as assurance of its ultimate success.

SILVER KING MINING CO. OPENS NEW VEIN

A new vein running parallel to the Nevada-Wonder vein has been opened up on the Band S. claims about 3,000 feet north of town, which is owned by the Silver King Mining company. Three feet has been uncovered on the surface which runs $11.60 in gold and $64.01 in silver. This vein will be developed by a shaft which has already been started.

Fifty men are on the payroll of the Nevada-Wonder Mining company and the big mine is a scene of great action. Ore is being blocked out ready for extraction and preparations are being made for the incline tramway.

The Jack Pot is still sacking ore from the shaft and a shipment is soon to be made.

On the Vulture an upraise from the tunel has been started on the ledge.

The Spider and Wasp leasers are working steadily on and great developments are being made. Six leasers are now in ore.

All other properties in the district are looking better with every foot of development

Two new companies have begun development work in the last week. The Doctor, which adjoins the Vulture, and the Jack Pot Fraction, which joins the Jack Pot group.

On the the Doctor, which is owned by Henry Weber of Goldfield, it is expected that the Vulture ledge will be picked up with depth as the property is located in line.

The Jack Pot Fraction Mines company, of which Thomas H. Condon, of Goldfield, is the head, has started active development work on the property which joins the Jack Pot group on the east. A shaft has been commenced and a very favorable showing has been found. Thirty-eight acres of good ground is owned by the company.

The finding of a great amount of flourine in the mines of the district gives promise of the permancy of the ledges.

One of the best located groups of claims in the district was sold last week by the Rager-Lamb company to Messrs. Von Polenz, McMillian & Sword of Goldfield for $50,000. Although a heavy rhyolitic capping has made it impossible to find showings on the surface it gives promise of being a great property as the famous Nevada-Wonder ledge has been traced to 100 feet of its sidelines. This group of claims is situated about 3,000 feet east of the Nevada-Wonder group.

The flow of water over two and one-half miles of the pipe line was measured and shows that 1775 gallons per minute is the ordinary supply which Wonder will receive. Two and one-half miles of pipe has also been tested and pronounced satisfactory by experts and the whole line will be in operation within ten days from date.

CELEBRATE BY STOPPING WORK

READING, Pa., April 1.—Most of the mine workers throughout the anthracite regions are idle today. They decided to suspend today in commemoration of the nine hour day victory secured through President Mitchell and demonstrations were held in different towns. The collieries will resume work tomorrow.

BINGER HERMANN BEGINS HIS CASE FOR DEFENCE

Depends on Relatives and Friends to Clear Him of Charges in Washington Criminal Court

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Binger Hermann's defense upon the charge of destroying public records was begun today with the eighth week of the trial with testimony intended to impeach the testimony of witnesses for the government.

Mrs Maud Silverstein of Portland, Oregon, was the first witness called by the defense She was called after some minor testimony had been heard from W. A. Richards and Irvin Tittenhaus, witnesses for the prosecution. Mrs. Silverstein's testimony was calculated to show errors in the statement made for the government by Henry Meldrum, former surveyor general of Oregon, to the effect that Mrs. Silverstein was offered $200 for the use of her name in connection with land entries.

Did Not Get the Job

The witness said she had never received such an offer and had never seen Meldrum but once and that was to ask for a osition in his office to which she had been recommended by Binger Hermann. She did not get the osition.

S. B. Hermann, son of the defendant, denied the statements of Meldrum that young Hermann and Attorney Gatley had invited Meldrum to call on Binger Mermann and Catley. He testified that he gave Gatley Meldrum's address and office telephone number.

Officer Brennan of the local police force told of directing Meldrum to Gatley's residence, which, he said, was given him by the clerk of a hotel.

Defendant's Wife Talks

Mrs. Cora Hermann, wife of the defendant, testified to letting Meldrum into the Gatley residence that same night and overhearing a conversation between the defendant and Mr. Meldrum. Mrs. Hermann contradicted Rittenhaus, who testified regarding a conference she had in a Portland restaurant with the defendant. Rittenhaus said that he and Chris Muller were dining together. Mrs. Hermann said that a Mr. Huff was also present at the table with Rittenhaus and Muller.

Mrs. Hermann was corroborated regarding the presence of Huff at the table with Muller and Ritterhaus, who was next called.

Discrediting Witnesses

H. P. Gatley, son-in-law and assistant counsel for the defendant, gave testimony intended to discredit Meldrum and Rowland as witnesses. This testimony related to statements made during their stay here since the trial began. Meldrum, the witness said, told the defendant and himself during the visit of Meldrum to the Gatley residence referred to, that he knew nothing against the defendant, believed he was an honest man, was always on top, and would come out of this trial on top.

As to Rowlands, Gatley told of a conference between Rowland, Attorney Worthington and himself in which Rowland said that the United States attorney wanted him to testify that he saw Hermann and Mays together in the Oregon surveyor-general's office at the time when Mays ordered a map made of the Blue Mountain section, that "this was a lie and he would see them in hell before he would testify." Rowland, however, did so testify last week.

McKay's Health

Several witneses were examined relative to the state of health of the late Nathaniel McKay during the spring of 1902. The testimony showed that McKay was in feeble health This evidence was introduced to impeach the testimony of Robertson, then secretary to Senator Mitchell, who said that McKay went out for Senator Mitchell and obtained a package of twenty dollar bills as change

Orville Dodge, of Oregon, who was an appointee of Hermann in the land office, and remained there during Mr Hermann's administration, testified that Mr. Hermann regularly bought postage stamps of him. He could not say how many, but he believed the amount averaged at least $1 a month

CALIFORNIA GIRL DEPORTED WITH CHINESE HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—Emma Culver of Duarte, a young California girl who a month ago married Yee Lung, a Chinese, started with the latter today when, with thirty-seven others of his race, he was loaded on board a Southern Pacific train bound for San Francisco en route to Hongkong, on an order of deportation from this country.

Miss Culver is the niece of a missionary worker. She met the young Chinese in Monrovia several months ago and finally they were married.

Lee Lung was arrested and after a trial in the federal court was ordered deported. His young wife stayed by his side constantly and when the order of deportation was made against her husband, she announced that she would go with him to China. Today she boarded the train with him. The party is in charge of Deputy United States Marshal J. S. Durbin, and six assistants.

They will be put on board the steamer Coptic at San Francisco tomorrow and shipped to Hongkong.

ENDS FOUR STORMY YEARS AS MAYOR

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—John Weaver today completed his four years as mayor of Philadelphia, a term that was as stormy as any administration in the city's history. He was succeeded at noon by John E. Reyburn, who resigned his seat in congress.

With the expiration of Mayor Weaver's term, the Republican organization which was in complete control of municipal affairs until two years ago, when it was defeated in a memorable fight over the leasing of the gas works again comes into full power.

Mayor Reyburn was elected on a straight party ticket and the members of his cabinet are strict party men.

Former Mayor Weaver will retire from politics and return to the practice of law.

AUDUBON SOCIETY SENDS OUT A VIGOROUS LETTER

DECLARES WAR ON SALE OF AIGRETTE

NEW YORK, April 2.—Easter Sunday has for the last time been marked by the barbaric display of plumes torn from the bleeding backs of an almost exterminated breed of birds, according to the leaders of a national movement which was started in this city today. Backed by the General Feneration and State Federations of Clubwomen throughout the country as well as by every humane and sportsman's organization, the National Association of Audubon Societies is laying extensive plans for a campaign which will finally put an end to the sale of the aigrette and the massacre of the Snowy Heron, to whom nature has given it as a decoration in mating time.

In Louisiana the Audubon workers have just won a hard legal battle and secured in higher court a verdict on apepal, which it is believed has established a good legal precedent upon which all minniners may be severely punished for the sale or possession of these bloody trophies of the wholesale butchery of the heron in the Florida wilds. Judge Chretien of the First City Criminal court of New Orleans has sustained the verdict of a lower court and sentenced a millinery store proprieor of that city to $50 or a term of thirty days in prison. The opinion upholds the force of the "model" law, which the Audubon societies have succeeded in having passed in all but eight states in the union, and within the next few months every milliner who deals in aigrettes will be prosecuted along the same lines.

More effective even than this campaign for vigorous enforcement of law against the commercial bird butchers, the Audubon officials believe, will be the stand which has just been taken by the women of this country through the various federations of clubs and other women's organizations. The following pledge is today being circulated to women by the general federation, two leading members of which, Miss Alice J. Fletcher and Mrs. Sara S. Platt Decker, have issued a strong appeal against the wearing of aigrettes in the official bulletin of the organization:

"Whereas, the number of our beautiful snowy herons is rapidly diminishing with a likelihood of their becoming extinct; and, whereas, the demand for aigrettes for millinery purposes is responsible for the slaughter of these feathered innocents, and the consequent death of the nestlings;

Therefore, resolved, that we, the undersigned, pledge ourselves to refrain from wearing any such badge of cruelty as the aigrette or the plumage of any wild bird, and that we will use al possible influence to restrain from doing so.

In the face of the general invitation of this movement the milliners of this city are today not only offering to equip Easter bonnets with any amount of heron plumes but causing fashion notes to appear saying that the "wisp of aigrette is still considered an appropriate garniture for bonnets." To those ladies who question the propriety of adding the scalp of a mutilated mother bird to their headdress, they protest that the aigrettes are artificial, though it has been repeatedly proven an impossibility to counterfeit the plumes of the snowy heron.

Reports from the Everglades of Florida, where the Heron congregate for the mating and breeding season, are daily reaching the headquarters of the National Association of Audubon socities at 141 Broadway in this city. They show that the destruction of the birds for their nuptial adornment is going on even more extensively than ever. The mutilated carcasses of the females strew the ground while their young starve to death nearby. Often the wholesale butchery of a whole colony of these birds, who grow tame and domestic at the mating season, will yield only a handful of the aigrete plumes.

President Roosevelt has already personally asured William Dutcher, president of the association, that Mrs. Roosevelt i seven more desirous than he to support the new movement, while Queen Alexandra of England has offered the use of her influence for a similar movement in Great Britain. The wide popular supoprt that has already been offered to the Audubon societies in the opening of this campaign is considered as assurance of its ultimate success.

SILVER KING MINING CO. OPENS NEW VEIN

A new vein running parallel to the Nevada-Wonder vein has been opened up on the Band S. claims about 3,000 feet north of town, which is owned by the Silver King Mining company. Three feet has been uncovered on the surface which runs $11.60 in gold and $64.01 in silver. This vein will be developed by a shaft which has already been started.

Fifty men are on the payroll of the Nevada-Wonder Mining company and the big mine is a scene of great action. Ore is being blocked out ready for extraction and preparations are being made for the incline tramway.

The Jack Pot is still sacking ore from the shaft and a shipment is soon to be made.

On the Vulture an upraise from the tunel has been started on the ledge.

The Spider and Wasp leasers are working steadily on and great developments are being made. Six leasers are now in ore.

All other properties in the district are looking better with every foot of development.

Two new companies have begun development work in the last week. The Doctor, which adjoins the Vulture, and the Jack Pot Fraction, which joins the Jack Pot group.

On the the Doctor, which is owned by Henry Weber of Goldfield, it is expected that the Vulture ledge will be picked up with depth as the property is located in line.

The Jack Pot Fraction Mines company, of which Thomas H. Condon, of Goldfield, is the head, has started active development work on the property which joins the Jack Pot group on the east. A shaft has been commenced and a very favorable showing has been found. Thirty-eight acres of good ground is owned by the company.

The finding of a great amount of flourine in the mines of the district gives promise of the permancy of the ledges.

One of the best located groups of claims in the district was sold last week by the Rager-Lamb company to Messrs. Von Polenz, McMillian & Sword of Goldfield for $50,000. Although a heavy rhyolitic capping has made, it impossible to find showings on the surface it gives promise of being a great property as the famous Nevada-Wonder ledge has been traced to 100 feet of its sidelines. This group of claims is situated about 3,000 feet east of the Nevada-Wonder group.

The flow of water over two and one-half miles of the pipe line was measured and shows that 1775 gallons per minute is the ordinary supply which Wonder will receive. Two and one-half miles of pipe has also been tested and pronounced satisfactory by experts and the whole line will be in operation within ten days from date.

CELEBRATE BY STOPPING WORK

READING, Pa., April 1.—Most of the mine workers throughout the anthracite regions are idle today. They decided to suspend today in commemoration of the nine hour day victory secured through President Mitchell and demonstrations were held in different towns. The collieries will resume work tomorrow.

BINGER HERMANN BEGINS HIS CASE FOR DEFENCE

Depends on Relatives and Friends to Clear Him of Charges in Washington Criminal Court

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Binger Hermann's defense upon the charge of destroying public records was begun today with the eighth week of the trial with testimony intended to impeach the testimony of witnesses for the government.

Mrs. Maud Silverstein of Portland, Oregon, was the first witness called by the defense. She was called after some minor testimony had been heard from W. A. Richards and Irvin Tittenhaus, witnesses for the prosecution. Mrs. Silverstein's testimony was calculated to show errors in the statement made for the government by Henry Meldrum, former surveyor general of Oregon, to the effect that Mrs. Silverstein was offered $200 for the use of her name in connection with land entries.

Did Not Get the Job

The witness said she had never received such an offer and had never seen Meldrum but once and that was to ask for a osition in his office to which she had been recommended by Binger Hermann. She did not get the osition.

S. B. Hermann, son of the defendant, denied the statements of Meldrum that young Hermann and Attorney Gatley had invited Meldrum to call on Binger Mermann and Gatley. He testified that he gave Gatley Meldrum's address and office telephone number.

Officer Brennan of the local police force told of directing Meldrum to Gatley's residence, which, he said, was given him by the clerk of a hotel.

Defendant's Wife Talks

Mrs. Cora Hermann, wife of the defendant, testified to letting Meldrum into the Gatley residence that same night and overhearing a conversation between the defendant and Mr. Meldrum. Mrs. Hermann contradicted Rittenhaus, who testified regarding a conference she had in a Portland restaurant with the defendant. Rittenhaus said that he and Chris Muller were dining together. Mrs. Hermann said that a Mr. Huff was also present at the table with Rittenhaus and Muller.

Mrs. Hermann was corroborated regarding the presence of Huff at the table with Muller and Ritterhaus, who was next called.

Discrediting Witnesses

H. P. Gatley, son-in-law and assistant counsel for the defendant, gave testimony intended to discredit Meldrum and Rowland as witnesses. This testimony related to statements made during their stay here since the trial began. Meldrum, the witness said, told the defendant and himself during the visit of Meldrum to the Gatley residence referred to, that he knew nothing against the defendant, believed he was an honest man, was always on top, and would come out of this trial on top.

As to Rowlands, Gatley told of a conference between Rowland, Attorney Worthington and himself in which Rowland said that the United States attorney wanted him to testify that he saw Hermann and Mays together in the Oregon surveyor-general's office at the time when Mays ordered a map made of the Blue Mountain section, that "this was a lie and he would see them in hell before he would testify." Rowland, however, did so testify last week.

McKay's Health

Several witnesses were examined relative to the state of health of the late Nathaniel McKay during the spring of 1902. The testimony showed that McKay was in feeble health. This evidence was introduced to impeach the testimony of Robertson, then secretary to Senator Mitchell, who said that McKay went out for Senator Mitchell and obtained a package of twenty dollar bills as change.

Orville Dodge, of Oregon, who was an appointee of Hermann in the land office, and remained there during Mr. Hermann's administration, testified that Mr. Hermann regularly bought postage stamps of him. He could not say how many, but he believed the amount averaged at least $1 a month.

CALIFORNIA GIRL DEPORTED WITH CHINESE HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, April 1.—Emma Culver of Duarte, a young California girl who a month ago married Yee Lung, a Chinese, started with the latter today when, with thirty-seven others of his race, he was loaded on board a Southern Pacific train bound for San Francisco en route to Hongkong, on an order of deportation from this country.

Miss Culver is the niece of a missionary worker. She met the young Chinese in Monrovia several months ago and finally they were married.

Lee Lung was arrested and after a trial in the federal court was ordered deported. His young wife stayed by his side constantly and when the order of deportation was made against her husband, she announced that she would go with him to China. Today she boarded the train with him. The party is in charge of Deputy United States Marshal J. S. Durbin, and six assistants.

They will be put on board the steamer Coptic at San Francisco tomorrow and shipped to Hongkong.

ENDS FOUR STORMY YEARS AS MAYOR

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—John Weaver today completed his four years as mayor of Philadelphia, a term that was as stormy as any administration in the city's history. He was succeeded at noon by John E. Reyburn, who resigned his seat in congress.

With the expiration of Mayor Weaver's term, the Republican organization which was in complete control of municipal affairs until two years ago, when it was defeated in a memorable fight over the leasing of the gas works again comes into full power.

Mayor Reyburn was elected on a straight party ticket and the members of his cabinet are strict party men.

Former Mayor Weaver will retire from politics and return to the practice of law.
